TRAIN DISASTER IN EAST KILLS NINE PERSONS

NINE KILLED IN WRECK IN PENNSYLVANIA

Many Are Injured As Trains
Sideswipe Each Other at Erie Depot

(By Associated Press)
ERIE, Pa., Oct. 20.—Six persons are known to have been killed, and at least 15 injured, when the Chicago and Boston Limited on the New York Central sidetracked a Buffalo-Cleveland train, westbound, at the Union station here today. Four bodies taken from the wreck were those of women. The dead in some instances were badly mangled. Fifteen persons were removed to hospitals and some were so badly hurt that physicians said their recovery was problematical. The body of a baby was recovered from the wrecked car, bringing the total of known deaths to seven, and a few minutes later word came from a hospital that two of the injured had died, making the total dead nine.

MURDERED MAN ON SEA CHARGED

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 20.—George Schumakoff, a seaman, was arrested today at Los Angeles harbor on a federal warrant charging murder on the high seas. Schumakoff is alleged to have shot and killed Ray Martinez, also a seaman, on the steamer San Antonio, off San Pedro on October 3 during a quarrel between decks. He escaped from the San Antonio by swimming ashore, and then shipped on another vessel. Schumakoff was arrested today when this vessel returned to port.

ATHENS, Greece, Oct. 20.—King Alexander passed a better night and slight improvement is noted. It was announced today. The condition of lung congestion remained stationary and the wound caused by the bite of a monkey is improving. Pneumonia is present, however.

COX SPEAKS IN RHODE ISLAND

(By Associated Press)
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 20.—Cox today continued his New England campaign with the league of nations as his principal slogan under a hard schedule extending through Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Connecticut. The governor today cudgeled the league opponents and the Republican supporters of Senator Harding.

WM. HARRINGTON PASSES AWAY

William Harrington, an employee of the Desert club, died this morning in the Mine Operators' hospital from an attack of pneumonia. Mr. Harrington has been a resident of Tonopah for a number of years, being employed at various mines, and a short time ago accepted a position at the Desert club. All his relatives are dead, according to his statement on entering the hospital. The deceased was popular among his wide acquaintance in this city and his many friends are shocked by the news of his death. The body is at the Wagoner & Cavanaugh undertaking parlors. No arrangements have been made yet for the funeral services.

DRIVE TUNNEL TO PICK UP LEDGE

According to J. I. Keating, who is in charge of work of the Comstock Exploration company, operating on the group of claims owned by the company west of town, a road for the purpose of hauling in supplies and material was completed to the workings last week, and grading has been placed under way for a change room and blacksmith shop. Work underground is now being directed at opening the Murphy tunnel, which has been placed in good condition for 150 feet. There remains about 50 feet of driving to cut the ledge, which is the objective of the present operations.—Chronicle.

LOCAL HUNTERS GO TO PAHRANAGAT

A hunting party, composed of Tom Osborne, Newton Crumley, Tom Munn, Bob Marker, Mr. Butler and Jimmy Welch left this morning for Pahranaagat valley, where they will spend several days. They left well provided with food and camping equipment and the number of guns and the amount of ammunition they had rivalled that of the American army in France. All of them made promises of bringing back the limit of ducks and quail, which are said to be plentiful in the valley this year.

POISON KILLS THREE NURSES IN CALIFORNIA

Autopsy Will Be Performed to Determine Source That Kills Three

(By Associated Press)
OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 20.—Three attendants at St. Anthony's hospital of this city died during the night and this morning, and a fourth is believed to be beyond recovery, as a result of some sort of food poisoning. Autopsies are being performed in two instances and an analysis of the stomach contents is being made. The dead are Dr. Edith Strong, assistant physician; Miss Anna Rebusa, a nurse; and Joseph Frebas, an orderly. Little hope is held for the recovery of Miss Nellie Russell, another nurse.

G. O. P. CLAIMS NEVADA VOTE

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Senator Harding is assured of 37s electoral votes and probably will receive at least 295, Will Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, told newspapermen today in an informal talk over reports now being received at Republican headquarters here from which a formal forecast of the presidential election will be made some time this week.

Mr. Hays said he was convinced that Senator Harding would carry every northern and every western state and had a good chance in Tennessee, Oklahoma and other border states. Western states which heretofore have been classed as doubtful now definitely are Republican, he said. In the senatorial races, Mr. Hays predicted that the Republicans would "hold everything they now have" and gain by carrying Maryland, Colorado, South Dakota, Kentucky, California, Nevada and Arizona. Every Republican senator running for re-election is certain of victory, he said.

KU KLUX KLAN WHIPS N. Y. MAN

(By Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 20.—A man who said he was Peter McMahon, of Yonkers, New York, his wrists seared by ropes and his back bearing the marks of a whip, left a northbound train here today and sought medical assistance. He said he had been seized and whipped on Monday near Trenton, South Carolina after he had attempted to assist Miss Florence Powell, of Akron, South Carolina, to obtain a large share of the estate of her father, who was dividing the property among his children. His underclothing was stiff with blood and besides the lash marks, his body and neck bore the marks of ropes with which he said his tormentors had tried to hang him. McMahon said his assailants used Ku Klux Klan methods.

BALLYDAVID, IRELAND, Oct. 20.— At Ballyna, two sons of a farmer named Dwyer, alleged to have been associated with the Sinn Fein movement, were last night taken from their house to the farmyard and shot. The shooting is said to have been done by a party of uniformed men.

WARRANTS MUST BE EXPLICIT

CARSON, Oct. 20.—In a decision Saturday morning, E. S. Farrington, federal judge, laid down the rule that will govern federal agents in Nevada in exercising search warrants for the purpose of uncovering stills and evidence to be used in the prosecution of charges of violation of the prohibition act. Judge Farrington held that the affidavit on which the search warrant is issued must state with great particularity the reasons for the search and what the facts are that leads the officer asking for the warrant to believe that the premises sought to be searched holds the incriminating evidence. An affidavit giving merely the statement of the officer that he has reason to believe the premises conceal evidence of illegal acts is not sufficient, Judge Farrington holds, and in all cases where the affidavit is not sufficient articles taken under the warrant must be returned.

RALPH WARDLE SUFFERS ACCIDENT

While Ralph Wardle was cutting kindling last evening, the axe slipped and struck him on the left hand, cutting a bad gash from the base of the thumb across the back of his hand. Several stitches were necessary to close the cut and it will be several weeks before Mr. Wardle regains the use of his hand.

BALLOT PAPER ARRIVES

The ballot paper from the secretary of state for the printing of the ballots for the general election has arrived in Tonopah. Owing to a shortage of this quality of paper the clerks in the various counties have been requested to figure on a very close margin the number of ballots required for the election.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—Government expenditures of $4,000,000,000 during the next fiscal year was forecast by Secretary Houston of the treasury department in an address before the convention of the American Bankers' association. The secretary outlined the treasury's program for handling the war debt and appealed for strictest economy, not only in our expenditures, federal, state, county and municipal, but also by thrift on the part of our people.

AMERICA WILL TRAIN DOCTORS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.—The United States public health service, which for some time has been making special efforts to facilitate the diagnosis of tuberculosis and especially to bring about its recognition in its very earliest stages, has recently opened mobile training courses for the purpose in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan and Washington. Similar courses have already been given in Texas, Louisiana, Maryland and Pennsylvania. These courses, which last seven days and are very intensive, are attached to the public health service; but, after all of these in the various states have completed the course, it is hoped that it may be possible to hold similar courses for the benefit of other physicians who may desire to attend.

The instruction is given by recognized experts in the diagnosis of pulmonary tuberculosis, and is supplemented by the showing of a remarkable motion picture, in six reels, which minutely illustrates every phase of the disease.

HARDING LAUDS TARIFF POLICY

(By Associated Press)
JACKSON, Ohio, Oct. 20.—Democratic "phrase-making" and Republican "performance" were contrasted by Senator Harding in a speech here today, lauding the protective tariff policy as an example of Republican accomplishment. "The truth is," he said, "that with all the progressive tongues and all literary idealism of our opponents, it is still the Republican party which stands as a safeguard of America."

SOAP CLUE IN DENTON MURDER

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 20.—The discovery today that a large quantity of soap and disinfectants was delivered early in June at the home of Jacob Denton was declared by the district attorney's office to have an important bearing upon the death of Denton, whose body was found buried in the cellar of his house. These articles were ordered by a woman and charged to the account of Denton. This account later was paid in full by the occupant of the house. The district attorney's office has brought forward the theory that Denton was killed while sitting at a table in the kitchen of his home sometime before noon of June 2. Blood spots under the linoleum in the kitchen was the clue which played a part in this theory. Evidence in the case is expected to be presented tomorrow to the grand jury.

ELKO THIEVES MAKE BIG JEWELRY HAUL

Some time Sunday night after 1 or 2 o'clock, thieves broke into the storehouse of Gus Pacinelli, on the corner of Third and Commercial streets, and made a clean-up of more than $1500 in money and jewelry, says the Free Press. The robbery was not noticed until Monday morning when it was found that a hole had been bored through the back door immediately over where the bolt was fastened to the door. The outside door of the big iron safe was closed, but the combination was not on, and it is evident that this fact was known to the burglars. The small door to the inside safe was pried off and all the valuables contained therein were taken, which consisted of a pearl necklace valued at $500, a diamond ring, diamond stickpin, diamond brooch and about $1000 in money, making the haul amount to nearly $2000. The robbers left no clue.
